

Jeju Air Crash Raises Safety Concerns

A Jeju Air Boeing 737-800 crashed in South Korea, prompting scrutiny over the airline's rapid expansion and maintenance practices.

Read here

An AirAsia Airbus A320-200 experienced engine issues shortly after takeoff, leading to an emergency return and highlighting engine reliability concerns.

Read here

AirAsia A320's Engine Trouble

An Azerbaijan Airlines Embraer E190 lost altitude unexpectedly, emphasizing the need for thorough aircraft inspections and pilot training.

Read here

Azerbaijan Airlines E190 Incident

A light aircraft operated by Jazirah Aviation Club crashed off the UAE coast, resulting in two fatalities and raising questions about light aircraft safety protocols.

Read here

Jazirah Aviation Club Crash

Hydraulic Failure in Chennai

A SpiceJet Boeing 737 reported a hydraulic system failure, leading to an emergency return. The incident underscores the importance of rigorous maintenance protocols.

Read here

A SAM Air DHC-6 Twin Otter stalled on approach in Indonesia, resulting in four fatalities and raising concerns over approach procedures.

Read here

SAM Air Fatal Crash

A China Southern 787-9 Dreamliner sustained heavy damage following a hard landing and tailstrike at Guangzhou Airport, emphasizing the importance of landing techniques.

Read here

China Southern Hard Landing

Explore key safety incidents from 2024, including runway excursions, hard landings, and inflight emergencies, highlighting crucial lessons for aviation safety improvements.

Read here

Round up of 2024